

SILK-FINISH

100 % mercerized cotton

For luxuriously
soft creations.

Get close and personal. With cotton, for example. It's exceptional to the touch. But remember: only the best is good enough, also when you're working.

Mettler Silk-Finish is the ideal thread when sewing cotton and especially suitable for piecing and quilting. The name says it all: Mettler Silk-Finish, the pure cotton thread dazzles with its natural look and soft feel.

Whether you're working by hand or machine. And thanks to the mercerizing process, Mettler Silk-Finish is high strength, and non-shrink, too! Quality, in other words, that also stands the test of time. Mettler Silk-Finish – the perfect sewing thread for your finest cotton creations. It will never let you down.
